

Warm Up:

Before reading the text, complete this warm up.

If possible, pick a partner or form small groups with 3-4 students. Direct your attention to the headline and first paragraph of the article, "A League of Their Own," by Dianna Wray. To get yourself oriented, answer these questions:

- Who is at the center of this story?
- Where does the story take place?
- What time period does this story take place?

Discuss with your partner(s) what you can infer from the text by looking at the second and third photos from the article. Based on what you see, explain how the photos give further clues as to the main focus of the article? Read the caption between the two photos. What other topic(s) does it suggest you will be reading about?

Note: To read the captions, download the PDF and click on the buttons in the lower right corner of each photo.
